Argues in four points that a careful reading of the New Testament requires some kind of trinitarian understanding of the relationship between the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Contends that Jesus' divinity and unity with the Father, plus the Spirit's divinity and personhood supports the concept of the trinity.

I would like to provide responses to the arguments and evidence that Richard Carrier offers to rebut my argument that Jesus existed. This task is complicated because, in his response to my original piece, Carrier says a surprisingly small amount that engages my argument and a large amount that does not.
